

With more than 200 objects on show, the exhibition explores the evolution of Newson's work from the mid 1980s to the present. Until February 3.

Shigeru Ban lecture

Renowned Japanese architect Shigeru Ban will discuss his extraordinary work, including his exploration of cardboard as a building material. The Powerhouse Museum, 500 Harris Street, Ultimo, at 5.30 pm. Cost $35/$25. Cocktails included. Tickets, 9217 0145. (See Helen Greenwood's profile on page 16.)

Saturday, August 11

Talk by leading Sydney architects

Hosted by the Royal Australian Institute of Architects, representatives of two of our leading young firms, Stanic Harding and Utz-Sanby, will talk about their residential projects. City Exhibition Space, Theatre, from 2-3.30 pm. Customs House, 31 Alfred Street, Circular Quay. Free. No bookings necessary.

Meet the designers of Workshopped 001

Designers from the Workshopped 001 exhibition will be available to discuss their work at Source four ninety, 490 Crown Street, Surry Hills, 9332 1522.

ANIBOU

Red Objective

The residents of Object studio have set a Design Week challenge – to transfer their individual experiences of "red" into form. Object studios, 6-8 Scott Street, Pyrmont, 10 am-4 pm daily, until August 20. Inquiries, 9552 4431.

Object Studio Open House Weekend

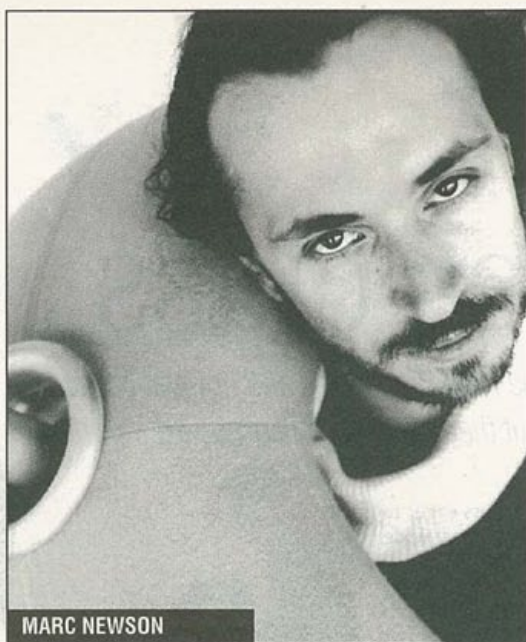

Get behind the scenes, watch workshops and demonstrations, and visit the designers in their studios, today and tomorrow at 6-8 Scott Street, Pyrmont. Inquiries, 9552 4431.

Meet the Makers

Object and jewellery designers Michael Pell, Kelly McDonald, Melinda Young, Christian Hall and Nell Youlden will be on hand to discuss their work and take commissions at gallery onefivesix, 156 Commonwealth Street, Surry Hills, 9280 4156.

In Search of the (Australian) Dream Home

What is the allure of the project home and pre-planned housing estate? An architect, heritage professionals and a developer examine this burgeoning issue from 1-5 pm at Museum of Sydney,

MARC NEWSON

37 Phillip Street, city. Tickets $25/$20. Bookings essential, 9518 6866

Riversdale Symposium

A design symposium at Riversdale, Riversdale Road, West Cambewarra from August 10-12. A unique opportunity to study this truly remarkable building designed by Glenn Murcutt, Wendy Lewin and Reg Lark. Speakers include architect Antony Westwood, of Harry Seidler & Associates. Cost, $60 per person per night. Bookings, 9489 8800.

Wednesday, August 15

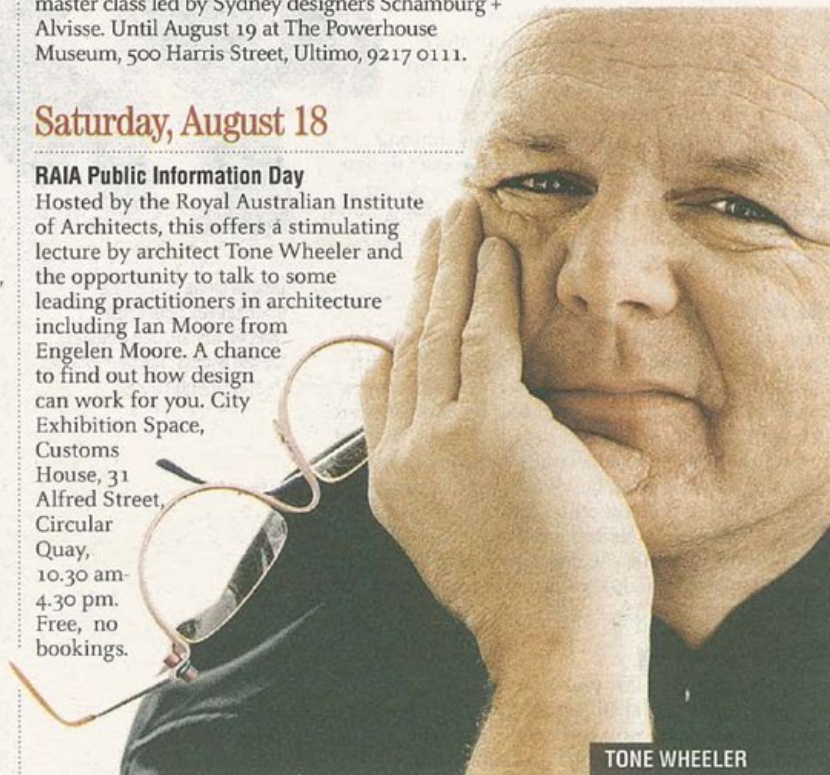

Master Class

Display of design ideas produced by participants of the master class led by Sydney designers Schamburg + Alvisse. Until August 19 at The Powerhouse Museum, 500 Harris Street, Ultimo, 9217 0111.

Saturday, August 18

RAIA Public Information Day

Hosted by the Royal Australian Institute of Architects, this offers a stimulating lecture by architect Tone Wheeler and the opportunity to talk to some leading practitioners in architecture including Ian Moore from Engelen Moore. A chance to find out how design can work for you. City Exhibition Space, Customs House, 31 Alfred Street, Circular Quay, 10.30 am-4.30 pm. Free, no bookings.

TONE WHEELER

Photos: Tamara Voninski, Damien McDonald, Jennifer Soo, Eddie Jim.

Shigeru Ban and Marc Newson stay in Sydney as guests of the Kirketon Hotel, Darlinghurst.

For more Design Week information, go to smh.com.au